Liability and Insurance

Please do not leave bags or suitcases unattended at any time, whether inside or outside the session halls. Hotels strongly recommend that you use their safety deposit boxes for your valuables.

The Conference Secretariat and Organizers cannot accept liability for personal accidents or loss of or damage to private property of participants. Participants are advised to take out their own personal travel and health insurance for their trip.

Official Letter of Invitation

An official personalized letter of invitation will be provided to registered participants as part of the registration procedure. This invitation is prepared solely for the purpose of visa applications and is not a commitment on the part of the organizers to provide any financial support or confirmation of inclusion in the Scientific Program.

Invitation letters can be provided electronically (PDF) if required after the registration process is completed. For further information please contact us HERE

Guest Attendance Policy

All event activities (including educational sessions, meal functions, exhibition hall, etc.) are exclusively reserved for registered attendees. Non-registered guests (including children, family members, colleagues, etc.) are not allowed in any of the event areas. Badges provided at registration are required for entrance into all functions and will be strictly enforced.

Engagement Policy

As a global convener and platform, Micronutrient Forum recognizes the importance of encouraging and facilitating constructive dialogue between representatives from all sectors in achieving our collective goals and reducing micronutrient malnutrition. To ensure we can accomplish this without any real or perceived conflict of interest, we have established strict guidelines for our 6th Global Conference in accordance with our external engagement policy.
